Facts

9. On April 8, 2010, Mohammed Rabiul Islam was about to leave the United States aboard Emirates Airlines flight number 212 for Dubai, United Arab Emirates, at the George Bush Intercontinental Airport in Houston, Texas. As part of a routine Customs outbound inspection, a United States Customs and Border Protection Officer (CBP Officer) on the jetway for this flight asked Mr. Islam if he was in possession of ten thousand dollars or more for himself or any other individuals. Mr. Islam said “I am in possession of eight thousand dollars and I am not carrying any money for other people.” The officer explained to Mr. Islam that if he was transporting more than $10,000, he must report this to the United States government. In this jetway, there were placards which advised passengers about their reporting requirements for transporting currency into or out of the United States. Mr. Islam again told the officer that he only had $8,000, and he confirmed in writing that he was carrying only $8,000.00.

10. The CBP Officer directed Mr. Islam to a private area to verify that Mr. Islam was carrying only $8,000.00. The Officer asked Mr. Islam to place his currency on a table for verification. Mr. Islam presented his wallet which contained $4,859.00. Next the officer discovered $5,900 in Mr. Islam’s jacket pocket. The officer then inspected Mr. Islam's luggage. The officer found $10,000 in Mr. Islam's black carry on bag, $10,000 in his black toiletry bag and $9,000 in another carry on bag. In total, the officer found that Mr. Islam was about to take out of the United States approximately $39,759 without declaring these funds. CBP Officers seized these funds for forfeiture.

Relief Requested

11. Plaintiff requests an arrest warrant and summons pursuant to Rule G, Supplemental Rules for Admiralty or Maritime Claims and Asset Forfeiture Actions, a judgment of forfeiture, and costs and other relief to which the Plaintiff may be entitled.
